

EZTEC wins “Master Imobiliário” Awards 2016

São Paulo, September 02nd, 2016 - EZTEC S.A. (Bovespa: EZTC3; Bloomberg EZTC3:BZ) won the Master Imobiliário Award 2016 in the category "Commercial Enterprise", with the case of corporate project EZ Towers.

Aiming to recognize and promote professional excellence in the construction sector, the Real Estate Master, promoted since 1994 by the International Federation of Real Estate Professions (FIABCI-Brazil) and the Housing Union (Secovi-SP) contemplates and annually publishes the performance of companies and professionals that best differ, following reviews of a judging commission composed of real-estate experts.

With the project authored by architect Silvio Yamamura, “CAU” – Council of Architecture and Urbanism - number 38056-3, and located on the region of the Chucri Zaidan Avenue, in the south zone of São Paulo, the EZ Towers project had its construction started in 2012 and comprises two corporate towers with 47,000 m² of BOMA area each, the Tower A delivered in 2014 and the Tower B scheduled to 2016.

"Delivering the EZ Towers to the city of São Paulo was a dream coming true. This project is not only the greatest one in the history of EZTEC. For me, it is a legacy that I leave for our city", says Ernesto Zarzur, Founder and Chairman of the Board of Directors of EZTEC.
